

'This is Us'

Every person in the Hampton Hargate Primary School Community is unique and important.

We each designed and painted a pebble to represent us. We are making an art installation which will hold all our stones in one river because ...We are all different,

we are all one

